

Utility Peg

The Utility Peg is a versatile addition to our modular system, built to maximize function in a compact form. It slides into any 1" upright hole and extends 10.25" on both sides, serving as a band peg, handle, or anchor point. ABS plastic protection keeps uprights safe from wear and damage. Durable and adaptable, the Utility Peg provides reliable support for a wide range of training applications.