FEATURES

Stray Dog Foam Plyo Boxes come as a 3-piece set, consisting of 6", 12", and 18" height variations. Made out of high density foam, allowing to be both rigid and lightweight. They provide athletes with a firm landing, platform while still offering protection to joints and shins. These plyometric boxes are designed for durability with heavy-duty Velcro, ensuring secure stacking during workouts. An additional Velcro strip ensures the flap remains free of dirt and protects it, extending the life of the product.
